PROJECT WILD and PROJECT AQUATIC WILD

Attention all educators and scout/youth leaders! In this hands-on workshop, you'll explore methods for teaching about wildlife and environmental issues through games, art, and group activities, not only science, but important social, cultural, and international issues. You'll spend the day trying out some of the different activities and will receive the Project WILD and Project Aquatic WILD books, which provide background information and other resources as well as a guide to the activities. These programs designed for K through 12th graders, are great for understanding most environmental topics and can be taught in both formal and informal settings, indoors and outdoors.

Free. Registration required. Please return the attached application form or call 571-258-3704 or email dodie.lewis@loudoun.gov to register.

* National Public Lands Day has been cancelled***

Due to the weather, this event, scheduled for Saturday September 27th, has been cancelled. The program was to take place entirely outdoors, and the park does not have sufficient indoor shelter in case of thunderstorms. Staff members are working with the park officials to reschedule in late October or early November. We apologize for the inconvenience.
