For Girl Scouts of All Ages

You Could Be the Next Featured Artist on Girl Scout Council of the Nation's Capital Holiday Greeting Card!

Deadline: Monday, November 10th

Each year, GSCNC selects the artwork of a local Girl Scout to display on our holiday card. So... put on your creative cap, take out your paint, crayons, pencil, or camera and design something special for this year's card. The artwork should be on an 8 1/2 x 11 sheet in full color, and the Girl Scout's name, age, troop number, troop location, and phone number on the back. All entries must be received by November 10th. In an effort to be inclusive of all Girl Scouts, submissions should illustrate the general holiday season and should not be religious in nature.

Please send your artwork to:

The Girl Scouts have joined with the "Take Our Daughters to the Polls" coalition created by the White House Project, a nonpartisan, not-for-profit organization dedicated to advancing women's leadership in the United States, and supported by numerous national organizations. The purpose is to encourage adults to speak with their daughters about the importance of voting and to show them how to participate in the electoral process. GSUSA Policy Reminder <<mailto:info@gscnc.org>>

GSUSA POLICY ON POLITICAL ACTIVITY

As the political conventions and election draw near, it is important to review the Girl Scouts of the USA policy concerning political activity as stated in SafetyWise:

"Girl Scouts, in their Girl Scout capacities, may not participate directly or indirectly in any political campaigns or participate in partisan efforts on behalf of or in opposition to a candidate for public office.

Girl Scouts are encouraged to become active and knowledgeable citizens, but must maintain a nonpartisan stand when acting in an official Girl Scout capacity. Wearing the uniform, citing a group number or council affiliation, or otherwise identifying oneself as a Girl Scout are examples of when one is acting in an official Girl Scout capacity.... Letter-writing campaigns, circulating petitions, or carrying banners or signs at political rallies and functions"

Girl Scouts May Not:

*Volunteer, perform ceremonies, or appear in uniform as a Girl Scout at any partisan event

*Distribute fliers, posters or other materials for a candidate *Raise money for any candidate or organization Endorse candidates or speak publicly about candidates

- *Campaign against any candidate or political party
- *Make financial contributions from Girl Scouts to candidates or political organizations

Girl Scouts May:

- *Take part in "get out the vote" activities (distributing registration forms, encouraging people to vote) as long as they're not favoring one candidate or cause
- *Assist voters in getting to polling places or provide activities for younger children at polling places
- *Organize debates representing all sides
- *Organize mock elections at school
- *Create displays or other educational-awareness information about women in politics
