Weekly Update:

First Aid & CPR Training

Just Posted:

CPR and First Aid courses at the ADAMS Center in Sterling for the following dates and times:

CPR--Tuesday, Oct. 14, 6-9:30pm, ADAMS Center Combo Room

First Aid--Thursday, Oct. 16, 6-9:30pm, ADAMS Center Combo Room

Please sign up for the course that you need, which might be just CPR, just First Aid, or the combined course. They are on the GSCNC website under Health and Safety.<http://register.gscnc.org/training/categorydesc.asp?cat=7>

Note: Right now they are posted as being in the Youth Room, but it should read the Combo Room. I will try to get that changed.

Operation Pinecone Halloween

The promise binds the Girl Scouts together as nothing else could do. It is a promise each girl voluntarily makes; it is not a rule of her family nor a command from her school nor a custom of her church. She is not forced to make it-she deliberately chooses to do so, and experience has shown that she fulfills her promise.

-from the Girl Scout Handbook, 1929.

Halloween

Treats for our Troops

We try to show our support for all our service members by sending a little something from home for every occasion. Won't you help us by donating some goodies to help fill our treat bags to be shipped in time for Halloween? (Deadline: 10/05/08).

Some Suggested Donations:

Bags of individually wrapped candies

Bags of individually wrapped candy bars (Snickers, Milky Way, etc.)

Mini boxes of raisins

Mini bags of M&M's

Mini-size bags of nuts, sunflower seeds, trail mix, etc.

Collection locations can be found on our website:
www.operationpinecone.org

Thank you in advance for your support of our efforts to keep our service members in our hearts and minds through our care packages.
